Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by WO 99/03630.

WO 99/03630 teaches, in the embodiments of figures 1 and 3 for example, a crucible (310) with a conically shaped orifice (304) having a fixed outlet diameter and oscillating member (300) including a conically shaped head extending through the outlet orifice and serves to continuously vary the size of the effective size of the orifice, thereby showing all aspects of the above claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed on 12-16-2002 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's argument that WO'630 does not teach varying the outlet diameter or slant angle in order to increase the range of drop sizes produced is not persuasive. Firstly as expressly stated in instant claim 1, line 5, the outlet diameter of the instant claims is fixed and not variable. Only the effective outlet diameter is variable. Secondly, the oscillation of the head (303) in WO'630 by the piezoelectric oscillator (302) serves to inherently vary both the effective outlet diameter and the slant angle in WO'630.

In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
